

3. Colors of letters and graphics should complement building architecture yet provide contrast to be visible and attractive.